

Please wash your hands!

Nothing beats good ol' fashioned soap and water to stop the spread of disease!

For your health and the health of the animals, we appreciate you taking the time to stop and wash your hands before handling another cat or dog.